COMMENTS:

Kevin Ross submitted an Answer on behalf of his father, Charles Wilber Ross. Kevin Ross stated that his father is 87 years old and suffers from Dementia. Via his conversation with the Legal Division: General Counsel, Tracy Barker he explained that his father will never serve in public office again and his service ended in 2018. When Kevin Ross spoke with Mrs. Barker he stated he and his brother are caring for their parents and he was overwhelmed with trying provided full time care for them both. Kevin Ross stated that his father's Ethics filing issues are far down on his priorities list, but out of respect for our job(s), and the Ethics Board, he would like to "put this to rest".

With the Covid-19 Pandemic, the care of his parents is now even more demanding since they moved them from out of their assisted living facility, where they received treatment, to living with he and his brother; where they do not receive any assistance. Kevin Ross asks the Ethics Board to waive the late fee assessed ("whatever needs to be settled") regarding his father. His father Charles W. Ross is incapable of addressing any past issues, expenses, and will never look to serve in any capacity again.
